

NOTICE AND KNOWLEDGE (removal of the Crown)

TO: Australian Electoral Commissioners, and all Staff

RE: Fraudulent Elections

RE: "Acts Amendment and Repeal Courts and Legal Practice Act"

Enacted 1 January 2004 Removal of the Crown

RE: "The Commonwealth"

The abovementioned Act did include "The Commonwealth"

Re: Your statutory duty was to call and conduct a referendum in relation to this Act. This was a mandatory duty

You omitted this referendum

We, the undersigned express to you, "The Australian Electoral Commission, and all its Staff," that in being Citizens of Australia, and having full legal entitlement to be enrolled on the Australian electoral roll, hereby give notice that we are in knowledge of the unconstitutional removal of the Crown, without referendum, from the Acts of the "Parliament of Western Australia" as has been outlined in the affidavit submitted by Brian William Shaw, of PO Box 800 Werribee Vic 3030 hereby attached.

As Legal Citizens of Australia, we have the right under the "Commonwealth Electoral Act" that in the case of an evident problem with an election that the "A.E.C." is obligated to go to the "High Court of Australia" to obtain an "injunction" to stop any further deception on "The People of Australia.
